₹36,000/MT, resulting in a 15% lower gross contribution on such exports, said rating agency Icra.

"Given that the lockdown in India continued in May and continues to remain in force for some Covid-19 hotspots till June and the fact that second quarter remains a seasonally weak quarter, domestic steel demand is likely to remain shallow in the first half of FY21. In such a scenario, Indian steel makers would have to push exports, even though less profitable, to keep operating at somewhat better capacity utilisation rates," said Icra's senior vice-president
